An efficient method for determining a price is to ship out a survey to your current customers. If these prospects have already bought an book from you, ask for their opinion when it comes to price. Do that by making a sales page for the new guide, but do not embrace a worth on that page. As an alternative, add a number of links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a value to your ebook.

One other technique is to test out costs by making a variety of duplicate sales pages with completely different prices on each page. Be certain that your gross sales copy is exactly the same on every page, and consists of your selling-handle sentence. Then work out for each web page the conversion ratio between guests to your web site and gross sales of your book. This will let you know what your optimum price is.

Finally, if you've written a e-book that solves a problem or presents a brand new method, your book will usher in both site visitors and profits. So make sure to write that promoting-handle sentence that sums up what drawback your guide solves and what the advantages of your 1041 ebook will be to the purchasers who purchase it. And then watch your market come to you!
