In addition to selling your books assiduously on-line, there are a number of other strategies that can enable you to promote more books.

One is to provide something away for free with your ebook, comparable to a valuable bonus item. Or bundle several ebooks under one value, which lowers the worth for each book if they have been offered separately.

An efficient approach for figuring out a value is to ship out a survey to your present customers. If these customers have already purchased an ebook from you, ask for his or her opinion in terms of price. Do that by making a sales page for the new e book, but do not embody a price on that page. Instead, add a lot of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a worth to your ebook.

Another strategy is to test out prices by making a number of duplicate gross sales pages with different prices on every page. Make certain your gross sales copy is exactly the similar on each web page, and includes your selling-deal with sentence. Then work out for each web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your web site and gross sales of your book. It will let you know what your optimum value is.

Finally, if you've written a e book that solves a problem or presents a new approach, your e book will herald each visitors and profits. So you'll want to write that selling-handle sentence that sums up what drawback your guide solves and what the benefits of your 135 e book shall be to the purchasers who buy it.
